Librarian's Report April 2016

I've finally reached the end of processing the many great books donated to us by the Lather family. A majority of them have been added to our collection. Duplicates and some paperbacks are stored in boxes on the bottom shelves of the book stacks for the July 4th book sale.

EC Fiber has completed their work here. One patron inquired, then commented that speed isn't any different than before. I would agree with that.

Jennifer Rathburn, Librarian
